

Welcome to the Hay Permit Online Application!

On this site there is information on General Rules & Regulations, Brochures, and guideline documents to assist you through the application process. Click on the links below for each one. When you are ready to start your application click on "Hay Permit Application".

The screenshot shows the Nebraska Department of Transportation website. The header includes the logo and navigation links: HOME, TRAVEL, BUSINESS CENTER, PROJECTS, SAFETY, AERONAUTICS, and a search bar. The main navigation bar highlights "HAY HARVEST PERMITS". The content area is divided into several sections:

- Permits: A sidebar menu with links to "Oversize/Overweight Truck Permits", "Hay Harvest Permits", "Right-of-Way Permits", and "Signs".
- Hay Harvesting Resources: A list of links including "General Rules & Regulations - PDF", "Hay Harvesting Program Informational Brochure - PDF", and a note that the brochure includes contact information for NDOT maintenance offices.
- Application Process: A link to "Hay Permit Application" and a paragraph explaining that applications are submitted until 7:00AM CST on July 30, with a "first-come, first-serve" basis. It notes that in-person applications at NDOT offices are also considered "in-line".
- Public GIS Map: A link to view the GIS map and a paragraph explaining that the map updates three times a day (6AM, 10AM, 2PM CST) and shows unavailable miles in blue.
- Hay Hauling Information (Not Related to Right-of-Way Hay Harvesting): A link to "Revised Statute 60-5-288" and a paragraph stating that during daylight hours, vehicles en route to pick up, deliver, or return unloaded from delivery of baled livestock forage may be twelve feet in width.

All fields with * are required, please fill in your information.

In the Renewal box:

If you are a landowner (and are only asking for your land frontage area that you chose the previous year) click yes in the renewal box.

If you are a landowner (and choose to change the land frontage area from the previous year) click no on the renewal box.

If you are not the landowner (and are purchasing a general public permit) select no on the renewal box.
