FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Work to Resume on US-30, Sutherland to Hershey

September 18, 2019 (North Platte, Neb.) — Weather permitting, work will resume September 23 on US-30 from Sutherland to Hershey, according to the Nebraska Department of Transportation.

Knife River Midwest, LLC, of Sioux City, Iowa has the $8,110,000 contract. Work includes replacement of cracked concrete panels, rumble strips and pavement marking.

Traffic will be maintained utilizing flaggers and/or temporary traffic signals, and a 16-foot width restriction will be in place for the duration of the work. Anticipated completion is November 2019.

Motorists are reminded to drive cautiously in and near construction zones and to expect delays.
