Presentation Focus: The panel will be well versed in the organizational structure and technical responses provided in the Statement of Qualification for this RFQ. NDOT asks that you not focus a lot of time presenting on those areas unless there have been changes you want to highlight. Instead, NDOT suggests the interview contains information such as the following:

- What are the most important aspects of designing buildings like rest areas with heavy public use to ensure reliability and durability.
- What are the keys to providing simple mechanical systems, including well and septic system design and installation, that have low maintenance and are easy to repair utilizing local contractors.
- Describe the pros and cons of using masonry vs. pre-cast in rest area facilities.
- Each firm should be prepared to answer a variety of Committee questions at the conclusion of their prepared presentation.
